Mission

Promood stands for PROMOVendi (the doctoral students) Overleg (consultative body) in Delft. Since 1991, Promood is the official representative body and discussion partner for all PhD candidates at the TU Delft.

Promood focuses on the sort of problems that are peculiar to doctoral students and it operates on the principle that PhD candidates themselves know, as no others, what sort of problems and difficulties can crop up during the course of their research. It is evident from the doctoral candidate policies upheld by the TU Delft that Promood is in close and regular contact with the university's various administrative organisations

Colophon

"Het Proefschrift" is the periodical of Promood. It is the printed medium for news and information for PhD candidates at the TU Delft. The cover of this edition of "Het Proefschrift" features 6 covers of theses printed by printer company Ponsen & Looijen.
